Forward

It's grand to come to Texas to celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the founding of the Dallas Coin Club. We come with mixed feelings of exhilarating anticipation and breathless apprehension. Is it true what they say about Texas?

We hope you will enjoy this 62nd Annual Convention of the Association. You will meet friendly people in an easy-going atmosphere. You will greet old friends and say hello to new ones. You will delight in the realization of your expectations—your apprehensions will prove unfounded.

The Souvenir Journal, with its cover design of the flag of the Republic of Texas, will remind you of the "Biggest and Best Convention of them all, Dallas—1953."

Thanks are due to the A.N.A. Convention Committee, to Brad Mills and his local committee, to the management of the Baker Hotel, and to all advertisers.

A. KOSOFF, Editor

GREETINGS, SALUTATIONS
AND A FRIENDLY
WELCOME TO DALLAS

In keeping with the Texas tradition, a warm hand-clasp awaits you. We all are happy that you are to be our guests during the coming A.N.A. Convention.

Truth is we have already rolled out the Red Carpet of Hospitality and are now busy brushing off the big, Texas-size Welcome Mat!

It will be the constant endeavor of each of us to help make your stay in Dallas as pleasant and rewarding as possible!

DALLAS COIN CLUB

Organized 1928

INVITATION TO DALLAS

TO MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE
AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION:

The invitation from the Dallas Coin Club to hold our annual convention this year in the Great State of Texas was a deeply appreciated honor and was quite promptly accepted by your executive officers. It is now my pleasant privilege to invite you to share this honor with us and attend the convention, participating in a program that has been most carefully prepared.

The Dallas Coin Club was the first to be organized in the South and has just recently celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary. The American Numismatic Association is pleased to extend its congratulations and best wishes to the founders and members of this Club as it begins the second quarter-century of its splendid numismatic activity.

The program of the convention will include the necessary business sessions for the acceptance of reports of officers and committees and to provide an opportunity for each member, who so desires, to have a part in the direction of the affairs of the Association. These sessions will be brief and will leave plenty of time for the social activities, the educational programs and the exhibits.

An annual convention is a time for fellowship, the renewing of acquaintances, of meeting old and new friends, of seeing parts of our great country in a true vacation spirit . . . of having fun.

You are most cordially invited to attend, to bring family and friends, enjoy real Texas hospitality at its best.

Most sincerely yours,

JOSEPH MOSS
President.

A Hearty Welcome to FABULOUS TEXAS

A land once ruled by the King of France, by the King of Spain and by an Emperor of Mexico. Later, a gloriously independent Republic of Texas, rich in numismatic history. Still later a State of the United States, then a proud member of the Confederate States. Finally, reserving the right to divide itself into five separate States, Texas came back into the United States.

THE DALLAS STAMP & COIN COMPANY is the newest and smallest coin store in this great State of Texas. We are proud to relate, that of approximately $80,000.00 worth of coins sold by our store in its first year and a half of business, only four coins have been returned to us for refund.

We hope during the convention you will visit the air-conditioned DALLAS STAMP & COIN COMPANY, at 1622 Bryam St. (just 3½ blocks from the Baker Hotel.)

This new book proves how easy it is to read and date Roman Imperial Coins . . . even for beginners! Without a knowledge of Latin, and without great expense you can become an adept collector of these coins. In 128 pages this clearly written book covers methods for determining dates; explanations and charts which are brief and easy to understand; and, scores of illustrations adjacent to descriptions. Sturdily bound. Gold stamped board cover. Size $5\frac{1}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Ask at your hobby dealer.

COLLEGE OF LAW
University of Florida Gainesville, Florida.

Gentlemen:

I wish to thank you for the prompt attention given my last two orders which I received today.

I have been collecting over a year now and you may have noted that my interests are varied in the Numismatic field.

My contacts with dealers have been just as varied and I am sincere in saying that I find your company unexcelled in making an interesting hobby more satisfactory.

Very truly yours,
J. R. RICHARDSON, Professor of Law.
Oshkosh, Wis.

Gentlemen:

Thank you for your check for $756.50 in payment of my coins, forwarded to you just a few days ago.

I was greatly pleased with the size of the check which is considerably more than I had anticipated, although I have been reading some of the high prices you advertise to pay.

Cordially yours,
JAMES H. MARSH.

Our reputation for fair dealing is worldwide. We have received hundreds of other letters commending us for our fair offers and prompt payment, or for our accurate and conservative grading of coins and notes, and fast, efficient service.

Whether buying or selling, be sure to write us today. We both lose if your business goes elsewhere. Mention A.N.A. number when requesting your FREE 1953 Giant Bargain Retail Catalogue.

All numismatic roads lead to Dallas during August — a vacation "must" where you'll enjoy real hospitality in a delightful atmosphere of the Deep South and the Beginning of the West, to be found only in Texas.

For a refreshing stop be sure to include Omaha in your itinerary and visit our large air conditioned offices and also visit our booth in Dallas...

How to Weigh THE MERITS OF AN Auction Service

1. Check firm's reliability and reputation. Refer to Dun & Bradstreet.
2. Investigate the terms, payments, and advances.
3. Check insurance coverage.
4. Compare quality and amount of advertising.
5. Check location and facilities.
6. Determine the actual number of catalogs distributed, and the type of mailing list employed.

A N D

7. Decide if an authoritative presentation and fine plates are to your advantage.
8. Decide if detailed descriptions and meticulous attention to detail "sell" your coins.
9. Consider the added advantages of combined floor and mail bidding.
10. Consistently compare results, not only in reference to a few key lots, but throughout an entire catalog.

ON TEXAS

Most everyone knows Texas is the biggest state in the Union. It has the right to make itself into four additional states, but that would spoil everything.

Texas has been under six flags—Spanish, French, Mexican, Texas Republic, Confederate and American. Folks, that's a lot of flags! She won her independence from Mexico at the Battle of San Jacinto in 1836, and after becoming and remaining a republic for nine years, joined the Union in 1845.

Texas is kidded a lot because of everything being so big down here. She is by far the greatest producer of oil, first in cotton, and close to the top in a dozen fields. Besides Dallas, principal cities are Houston, San Antonio (of Alamo fame), Fort Worth, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Waco and El Paso.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR LADIES

Many natural attractions in Dallas will do much to occupy the time of visiting ladies. The famous stores, style shows, starlight operas and dinner clubs are themselves excellent. Special entertainment also is planned for all visiting ladies.

INTERESTING DATA ON DALLAS COIN CLUB MEMBERS

The Dallas Coin Club has as members some of the outstanding collectors and authorities in numismatics.

B. Max Mehl, a Charter Member, has been a leading dealer and leader in the field for 50 years. His establishment at Fort Worth probably has handled a larger volume of business than any other in the world.

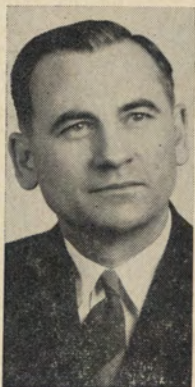

W. A. Philpott, Jr., is a leading collector of currency and is an authority in this field of numismatics. He also collects coins of every type and is genuinely interested in furthering the cause among younger collectors groping to find a reasonable course to pursue.

R. F. Schermerhorn, a comparatively new collector, has studied hard to become an authority on United States gold coins, various types of currency and such miscellaneous items as have struck his fancy. He is first of all a prominent oil man, but secondly a coin collector of top rank. He is now President of the Dallas Coin Club, and in addition owns a coin and stamp store in Dallas.

Cecil W. Watson primarily deals in coins as a sort of hobby. He always brings a large stock to each meeting of the Dallas Coin Club for trading and display purposes.

C. A. McGlamery has long been a serious collector of coins and currency of every type. He is one who appreciates the historical interest of each item and is greatly interested in Texiana, especially Republic of Texas currency.

And—

BRAD MILLS,
Convention Chairman.

DALLAS COIN CLUB

The Dallas Coin Club was organized May 24, 1928, in the Baker Hotel. Eleven men, each subscribing to the purpose of the Club, as outlined in the preamble, attended that first meeting. May, 1953, marked the Club's 25th birthday, and it was fittingly observed with a dinner program.

Interest lagged some during the depression years, but the Club long since has blossomed into full, vigorous adulthood. Attendance each month is high and frequently runs as high as 40.

Charter members of the Club number 15—all joining the organization before October 1, 1928, when the Charter Membership roll was closed. Of the original 15, three are active members today: W. A. Philpott, Jr., and C. A. McGlamery, holding memberships Nos 1 and 2, respectively, and B. Max Mehl.

Present active membership is about 75, and the Club is growing rapidly.

Since the Dallas Coin Club was the first of its kind organized in the South, the Confederate half dollar is fitting as an insignia for the Club.

ON DALLAS

Dallas was first settled in 1841 and has grown steadily each decade since. Present population is 475,000.

Soon after the Civil War it became the wholesale and jobbing center of the Southwest, and today most of the largest national firms have branches or headquarters here.

The city is an outstanding center for clothing manufacturers, insurance, finance, oil and communications.

Visitors will want to see Southern Methodist University, Fair Park, and the Cotton Bowl, magnificent subdivisions, and famous stores.

Dallas has many famous restaurants. Ask about them. Foods range from Mexican and typically American to specialties of the Old World.

The city is skilled in handling conventions, and if you are not getting the best of everything, report it, please.

AWARDS FOR EXHIBITS AT THE CONVENTION

Members are invited to arrange to exhibit specimens from their collections at the convention. Space may be reserved on request to the General Chairman.

Suitable awards will be given for the three best exhibits in each of the following classifications:

UNITED STATES COINS

UNITED STATES CURRENCY

FOREIGN COINS AND CURRENCY

ANCIENT ROMAN AND GREEK COINS

MEDALS AND DECORATIONS

The Howland Wood Memorial Award will be presented for the best exhibit at the convention.

Each exhibitor will receive a participation ribbon.

THE AUCTION SALE

The biggest A.N.A. Auction Sale in Convention history has been ably catalogued by the Numismatic Gallery of Beverly Hills, California. With previous experiences of this kind, the two A.K.'s who run the Gallery have prepared approximately 4800 lots consigned by thirty-five collectors.

The large number of lots will be sold in four parts, three public sessions and one mail bid session.

Saturday afternoon at 1:00 P.M. on the Mezzanine floor, lots 1 to 702 will be sold. Lots 703 to 1443 will go under the hammer Monday evening at 7:30 P.M. and Tuesday afternoon at 1:00 P.M. will see the third public session offering lots 1444 to 2191.

Lots 2195 to 4780 will be awarded to the highest bids received on BID SHEETS. These must be in our hands on or before August 26th.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Persons not attending the public sessions may enter bids on ANY lot from 1 to 4780 by submitting a BID SHEET. Their bids may be left with an attendant of the Numismatic Gallery on the Convention Floor or at the desk, Attention, A. Kosoff.

"In the Days of Old...."

This interesting picture was found engraved on the reverse of an 1863 copper-nickel Cent by collector Denis of Maine, and was presented to me.

It shows that the SUITCASE and COINS is not a particularly new idea. This may have been Bushnell, Mickley, or Cogan; who knows?

I will offer the J. E. Gramlich collection of U. S. Silver and Copper Coins on the SUITCASE SPECIAL for September.

PROVIDENT PLEDGE LOANS

- 1—The pledge loan is the oldest and quickest (usually within 10 minutes) method of borrowing money. Loans in person, by mail or by agent. No inquiry regarding credit, income or employment.
- 2—Our examination of articles presented determines size of loan.
- 3—Pledge loans are not discounted. The borrower has the use of the full amount of the loan for a year. Monthly payments are not required but loans can be reduced or paid anytime during their life. Interest for the exact number of days is charged at the lowest known rate for pledge loans and is due when the loan is paid or renewed.
- 4—18 offices serve 400,000 people annually with pledge loans from $1 to several thousands.
- 5—Loan offices have protected vaults—3 offices have refrigerated vaults for fur loans — staff is expert in handling jewelry, watches, cameras, furs, stamps, coins, typewriters, sewing machines, rifles, shotguns, L. P. records, etc.
- 6—Pledge borrowers do not incur debts. No obligation to pay interest or repay the loan. Articles abandoned after one year are sold at auction. Any money realized above amount due goes to holder of ticket.
- 7—LOANS BY MAIL: After examination of articles, sent by registered mail or express, a loan ticket with your check will be sent to you the same day. Should the amount of our loan be unacceptable, you can either send other articles or return the loan ticket and check, and we will re-ship collect the articles submitted.
- 8—The Loanmobile office makes loans one day each week in Forest Hills—Woodside—Flushing—Ozone Park—Bayside.

COINS ON APPROVAL

Just like coming into our street floor store and asking to see a certain coin. If you do not like its looks or the price we ask, you do not buy it, and ask to look at some other coin that may meet with your approval, both as to condition and price.

Well, just mail us a list of five or ten coins that you can use in your collection. Don't ask for the SCARCE and HARD TO GET ONES, ask for some of the more COMMON DATES that you do not have, in Cents, Nickels, Dimes, Quarters, Halves and even Dollars.

Then mention some foreign country, from which you would like to have a coin.

No obligation to keep any of them, except pay the return postage.
